Dear Madam:

The data herein were obtained from the papers on file in pension claim, S. 11270, based upon the Revolutionary War service of Joseph Proctor.

The date of soldier's birth and names of his parents are not shown in the claim.

Joseph Proctor, while living on the Holstein River in Virginia, enlisted in 1777 and served one month as a private in Captain Aaron Lewis' company, Colonel William Campbell's Virginia regiment. He enlisted in 1778 as an Indian spy in the Virginia troops under Captains Riddle, Benjamin Logan, Vincent and James Estill. He was in the fort at Boonesboro, Kentucky, during the siege, also in two Indian expeditions under General George Rogers Clark and served until 1782 when he was engaged in an Indian battle where Captain Estill was killed. In 1786 he was in General Logan's Indian campaign across the Ohio.

He was allowed pension on his application executed July 17, 1832, while a resident of Estill County, Kentucky, aged seventy-six years.

There are no data on file as to his family.

Very truly yours

A. D. HILLER
Assistant to Administrator
